ABOUT THE BUSINESS

Founded in 1897, Taubmans is one of Australia's most enduring paint brands. With a rich legacy of colour expertise, performance, and innovation, our paints continue to shape homes, communities, and commercial spaces across the country.

Colour brings life to the spaces we live, but it doesn't exist in isolation. It works in harmony with other finishes in the home, especially the timeless textures of stone.

Taubmans Colour & Design Manager, Fiona Dawson, has partnered with the Stone Ambassador team to curate a selection of trending paint colours paired with their most popular stone finishes.

The result? A perfect match—and an inspiring starting point for your next project.

ABOUT THE BUSINESS

At Stone Ambassador, we have always believed that surfaces are more than just materials, they are the canvas on which design comes to life.

With decades of expertise in decorative surfaces, we combine innovation, sustainability, and uncompromising quality to inspire spaces that endure.

Zenith Surfaces sets a new global benchmark for sustainable surface architecture. Featuring over 40 meticulously curated colours across five unique ranges for the Australian market, Zenith Surfaces draws inspiration from the raw elegance of nature.

From luxurious designs to soft-touch matte finishes and organic tones, each surface captures intricate patterns and breathtaking visuals with subtle sophistication.
